LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

(a.) A printed copy of such Bill:

(b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House:

(c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¾ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated May 1st, 1930.

473-my1

W. H. LANGLEY,
Clerk, Legislative Assembly.

(2.) To manufacture pulp, paper, and lumber from every suitable material and by every possible process, and to erect mills, storehouses, and all other buildings, and to construct, erect, and maintain every sort and kind of plant and machinery necessary for the purposes of or in any way connected with the manufacture of pulp, paper, and lumber; and to purchase, sell, dispose of, and generally deal in pulp, paper, lumber, and all combinations and products thereof:

(3.) To purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire sawmills, shingle-mills, pulp-mills, paper-mills, and mills of any other description for the manufacture of lumber, shingles, pulp, paper, and other timber products:

(4.) To acquire all necessary machinery and equipment for such manufacture of lumber, shingles, pulp, paper, and other timber products:

(5.) To carry on the business of merchants, carriers by land or water, ship-owners, wharfingers, warehousemen, scow-owners, barge-owners, lightermen, and forwarding agents, and to buy, sell, repair, build, charter, hire, and operate steamers, tugs, barges, ships, and other vessels, and to employ the same in the conveyance of passengers, mails, merchandise, and freight of all kinds:

(6.) To avail itself of and to have, hold, exercise, use, and enjoy all rights, powers, privileges, advantages, priorities, and immunities created, provided, and conferred by the "Water Act" and any amendment thereof, and any and all other laws pertaining to the appropriation and use of waters for any and all purposes whatsoever:

(7.) To acquire, operate, and carry on the business of a power company, and to apply water or water-power for producing any form of power, or for producing and generating electricity for the purposes of light, heat, and power, or any other purpose for which electricity may be applied; to acquire, construct, and operate waterworks, and to distribute, sell, supply, or use water or water-power for mechanical, irrigation, domestic, or any other purposes for which water or other power may be supplied, sold, or used; to render water and water-power available for use, application, and distribution by acquiring, constructing, erecting, and operating any and all improvements of every sort whatsoever necessary for said purposes, including the diverting of the waters of any stream, pond, or lake into any other channel or channels:

(8.) To construct, equip, operate, and maintain electric, cable, or other tramways for the conveyance of passengers or freight:

(9.) To construct, equip, operate, and maintain telegraph and telephone systems and lines:

(10.) To carry on the business of an electric light company in all its branches, and to do any and all things necessary to generate, distribute, and supply electricity to any person, firm, or corporation or municipality:

(11.) To obtain by purchase, lease, hire, discovery, location, or otherwise, and hold, mines, mineral claims, mineral leases, prospects, and mining lands, oil claims, leases, prospects, and lands, and mining rights of every description, and to work, develop, operate, and sell or otherwise dispose of the same or any of them or any interest therein, and to carry on the business of a mining, smelting, milling, and refining and oil company in all or any of its branches:

(12.) To acquire by lease, purchase, or otherwise lands containing sand, gravel, granite, sandstone or limestone, or other building substances or materials, and to carry on the business of quarry-owners and wholesale and retail dealers in any and all kinds of building materials:

(13.) To establish, operate, and maintain stores, trading-posts, and to carry on a general mercantile business; to carry on the business of hotel and inn keepers:

(14.) To remove obstructions from any river, lake, creek, or stream, and to do all things necessary to make the same clear and fit for rafting and driving thereon logs, lumber, rafts, or crafts, and for such purposes to blast rocks, deepen channels, remove shoals or other impediments; or otherwise improve the navigability or floatability of any river, lake, creek, or stream:

(15.) To purchase, lease, take by licence, or otherwise acquire, sell, deal with, use, and dispose of any lands, timber licences or limits, grants, concessions, leases, mill-sites, and any real or personal properties of every description, and to work, develop the resources of, and turn to account the same in such manner as the Company may think fit:

(16.) To construct, build, acquire by purchase, lease, or otherwise, maintain, improve, manage, operate, work, control, and superintend logging-railways, tramways, skidways, roads, wharves, bridges, docks, piers, booms, reservoirs, flumes, aqueducts, pipes, pipe-lines, and other works, apparatus, and conveniences which the Company may think, directly or indirectly, conducive to any of the objects herein expressed:

(17.) To manufacture, buy, sell, export, import, and generally deal in ropes, cables, windlasses, tackle, and ship-building supplies generally.

(c.) To carry on the business of fire insurance brokers, agents, inspectors, and adjusters in all their various branches, and to represent any and all companies, firms, or individuals engaged in any branch of the said business, and to accept or pay any commissions or other remunerations for services rendered:

(d.) To act as agents or attorneys for the management of estates, the sale of property, the investment, handling, loans, payment, transmission, and collection of moneys, rents, interests, dividends, mortgages, bonds, debentures, and other securities, and the undertaking of investigations, valuations, sales, exchanges, leases, subdivisions, and the like, and to carry on the business of general brokers and agents, other than banking or trust business as defined by the "Trust Companies Act":

(e.) To establish, maintain, conduct, and carry on, the business of jobbing, commission, manufacturers' agents or representatives, and general agency business, and to act in the capacity of agents for manufacturers of goods and commission merchants:

(f.) To carry on the business of importers and exporters of and to buy, sell, and deal in all kinds and description of goods, wares, and merchandise:

(g.) To carry on the business of a promoter, organizer, and manager of mining, financial, oil, gas, industrial, mercantile, lumber, timber, and other companies and corporations; to promote, organize, develop, and manage, or to assist in the promotion, organization, development, or management of, any corporation, company, syndicate, enterprise, or undertaking, and to raise and to assist in raising money for, and aid by way of bonus, loan, promise, endorsement, subject to the provisions of the "Insurance Act," guarantee of bonds, debentures, or other securities or otherwise, any company or corporation promoted by this Company, and to offer for public subscription any shares, stocks, bonds, debentures, or other securities of any company, corporation, business, or undertaking:

(h.) To locate, purchase, take on option, lease, or licence, pre-empt, exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire any lands, oil and gas lands, timber lands, in fee or otherwise, and also timber and timber limits by lease, licence, or otherwise, and rights to cut and remove timber and any rights or privileges which may be necessary for the purposes of the Company, and to survey, cruise timber and timber lands in any locality:

(i.) To carry on all kinds of exploration business, and in particular to search for, prospect, examine, and explore mines and grounds supposed to contain minerals or precious stones, and to search for and obtain information in regard to mines, mining claims, mining districts and localities:

(j.) To purchase, take on lease or option, and otherwise acquire any mines, mining rights, and metalliferous lands and any interest therein, and to explore, work, exercise, develop, and turn to account the same:

(k.) To crush, win, get, quarry, smelt, calcine, refine, dress, and amalgamate, manipulate, and to prepare for market ore, metal and mineral substances of all kinds, and to carry on any other metallurgical operations which may seem conducive to any of the Company's objects:

(l.) To buy, sell, option, lease, manufacture, and deal in minerals, plant, machinery, equipment, implements, conveniences, provisions, and things capable of being used in connection with metallurgical operations and mining of all kinds, or required by workmen and others employed by the Company:

(m.) To carry on the business of extracting, pumping, drawing, transporting, and purifying and dealing in petroleum and other mineral oils and natural gas:

(n.) To search for and perfect, examine and explore, work, take on lease, purchase, or otherwise acquire lands and places which may seem to the Company capable or possibly capable of supporting a supply of mineral oil or natural gas, and to establish, utilize, and turn to account pumping-stations, pump-lines, and other works and conveniences suitable for the purpose:

(o.) To carry on the aircraft business and of dealers in, manufacturers, letters, hirers, repairers, storers, and warehousemen of aeroplanes, balloons, air-ships, and flying-machines of all kinds, and all motors, machinery, and accessories capable of being used therewith, and to establish and maintain lines or service of aircrafts of all kinds, and carry on the business of carriers of passengers and goods by air, sea, river, and otherwise, and to enter into contracts in respect thereto:

(p.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects.

And it is hereby declared that the word "company" in this clause shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not incorporated, and whether domiciled in the Dominion of Canada or elsewhere; and the intention is that the objects specified in every paragraph of this clause shall, except where otherwise expressed in such paragraph, be independent main objects, and shall be in nowise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company; and none of such paragraphs, nor the objects therein specified, nor the powers thereby conferred shall be deemed subsidiary or ancillary merely to the objects mentioned in the first paragraph of this clause, but the Company shall have full power to exercise all or any of the powers conferred by any part of this clause, and notwithstanding that the business, undertaking, property, or acts proposed to be transacted, acquired, dealt with, or performed do not fall within the objects of the first paragraph of this clause:

To build, buy, sell, deal in, equip, operate, charter, lease, and own steamships, sailing-ships, boats, aircraft, automobiles, railroad or other cars and vehicles of every kind or description, together with their apparel, tackles, appliances, and fittings, and any other property to be used in the business of trading, commerce, and navigation; to purchase and sell, own and hold, mortgage and lease, and deal in all kinds of wharves, water rights, piers, hangars, airdromes, garages, or other structures, and lands both within and without the Province of British Columbia and the Dominion of Canada and in any and all parts of the world:

(g.) To acquire water and water-power by records of unrecorded water or by the lease or purchase of water records or water privileges:

(h.) To acquire, operate, and carry on the business of a power company, and construct and operate works and supply and utilize water under the "Water Act" or any amendments thereof, or any other Act passed in substitution therefor or as an extension thereof:

(i.) To distribute, sell, supply, or use water-power for mechanical, irrigation, domestic, or any other purposes for which water or other power may be supplied, sold, or used:

(j.) To apply water or water-power for producing any form of power, or for producing and generating electricity for the purpose of light, heat, and power, or any other purpose to which electricity may be applied:

(k.) To render water and water-power available for use, application, and distribution by erecting dams, increasing the head of water in any existing body of water or extending the area thereof, diverting the waters of any stream, pond, or lake into any other channel or channels, laying or erecting any line of flume, pipe, or weir, and constructing any raceway, reservoir, aqueduct, weir, wheel, building, or other erection or work which may be required in connection with the improvements and use of the said water or water-power, or by altering, renewing, extending, improving, repairing, or maintaining any such works or any part thereof:

(l.) To carry on the business of an electric light company in all its branches, and in particular to construct and lay down, establish, fix, and carry out all necessary cables, wires, lines, accumulators, lamps, and works, and to generate, accumulate, distribute, sell, and supply electricity, and to light buildings, streets, docks, and places, both public and private:

(m.) To construct, operate, and maintain electrical works, power-houses, generating plant, and such other appliances and conveniences as are necessary and proper for generating electricity or any other form of developed power, and for transmitting the same to be used by the Company, or other persons or corporations contracting with the Company therefor, as a motive power, or for all or any of the purposes to which electricity or electric power derived from water may be applied, used, or acquired:

(n.) To manufacture, purchase, or otherwise acquire, own, sell, assign, or otherwise transfer and convey, trade, deal in and with goods, wares, merchandise, and property of every class, variety, and description, whether produced by said Company or other companies, corporations, firms, or individuals; to build, repair, maintain, acquire by purchase or otherwise, and operate machines and mechanical contrivances of all kinds and descriptions:

(o.) To acquire by purchase or otherwise the good-will, trade-marks, trade-names, and all other rights and interests in or pertaining to any business whatever, and to conduct, control, and manage the same, and to assume, entirely or in part, the payment of the debts and liabilities of any person, firm, association, company, or corporation, and to pay for the properties, assets, and rights of any such person, firm, association, company, or corporation in cash, stock of this Company, or with its bonds, or with the stock or bonds of other companies, corporations, persons, firms, or associations, or with other property or otherwise:

(p.) To discover and make inventions and institute and carry through to final decision proceedings for letters patent on inventions of said Company or of others in the Dominion of Canada or any Province thereof and in any and all countries of the world; to apply for, obtain, register, purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire, and hold, own, use, operate, introduce, and sell, assign, or otherwise dispose of, any and all trade-marks, trade-names, licences, and concessions, and all inventions, improvements, and processes used in connection with or secured under letters patent or otherwise of the Dominion of Canada or any Province thereof or of any and all countries of the world; and to use, exercise, develop, grant licences in respect of, or otherwise turn to account any such trade-marks, patents, licences, concessions, processes, and the like, or any such property, rights, and information so acquired; and with a view to the working and developing of the same, to carry on any business, whether mining, manufacturing, or otherwise, which said Company may think calculated, directly or indirectly, to effectuate and accomplish these purposes:

(q.) To hold, acquire, to sell, assign, transfer, mortgage, pledge, or otherwise dispose of shares of the capital stock, bonds, or other evidence of indebtedness created by this Company or any other company or companies, corporation or corporations, and while the holder of such stock to exercise all the rights and privileges of ownership, including the right to vote thereon, to the same extent as a natural person might or could do:

(r.) To purchase, lease, exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire any and all rights, privileges, pursuits, or franchises suitable or convenient for any of the purposes of the business hereinbefore or hereinafter mentioned or specified; to erect or construct, make, improve, or aid or subscribe towards the construction, making, and improvement of mills, factories, storehouses, buildings, houses for employees and others, and works of all kinds and descriptions, and in connection with and in furtherance of the general business objects and purposes of said Company as herein described:

(s.) To borrow and lend money with or without security therefor; to make and issue promissory notes, bonds, debentures, and other evidences of indebtedness; to hypothecate and encumber by mortgage or deed of trust or otherwise all or any of the real or personal property of this Company, wherever situated; to guarantee the payment of the principal or the dividends or interest on any shares, stocks, debentures, or other securities issued by or any other contract or obligation of any company, corporation, firm, or individual whatsoever:

(t.) To make, enter into, and execute contracts of every kind and character, sealed and unsealed, with individuals, firms, associations, companies, and corporations, private, public, and municipal and bodies politic, and with the Government of the Dominion of Canada, or the Province of British Columbia or any other Province thereof, or of any and all countries and States in the world:

(u.) To apply for any Act of Parliament or Legislature or any other powers or authorities which the Company may consider desirable for carrying out its objects, or to oppose any proceedings or applications which to the Company may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to interfere with or prejudice its interests:

(v.) To carry passengers, goods, and wares of every kind on any of the ships, vessels, aircraft, cars, wagons, scows, barges, and other conveyances and means of conveyance of the Company between such places as the Company may from time to time determine, and to collect money for fares and freight for the carriage of such passengers and goods and the doing of all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the objects of the Company:

(w.) To do each and everything necessary, suitable, or proper for the accomplishment of any of the purposes or the attainment of any one or more of the objects herein enumerated, or which shall at any time appear conducive or expedient for the protection or benefit of this Company, either as holders of or as interested in any property:

(x.) The objects set forth in any subclause of this clause shall not, except when the context expressly so requires, be in anywise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other subclause or by the name of the company. None of such sub-clauses, or the objects therein specified, or the powers thereby conferred shall be deemed subsidiary or auxiliary merely to the objects mentioned in the first subclause of this clause, but the Company shall have full power to exercise all or any of the powers conferred by any part of this clause in any part of the world, and notwithstanding that the business, undertaking, property or acts proposed to be transacted, acquired, dealt with, or performed do not fall within the objects of the first subclause of this clause:

(y.) To do any and all the things herein specified as objects, purposes, and powers, as principal or as or by agents, contractors, or otherwise, and so to do them in the Province of British Columbia, the Dominion of Canada, or in any part of the world.

(e.) To explore, develop, work, mine, or otherwise improve real property, both within and without the Province of British Columbia and the Dominion of Canada and in any part of the world, either owned, leased, or otherwise held by this Company as its property, either as principal, agent, or otherwise, or owned, leased, or otherwise held by any other individual, firm, company, corporation, State, territory, or political subdivision thereof, for the purpose of acquiring oil, gas, or the mineral products or other products of which said property is composed, contains, or may produce; to manufacture, buy, sell, and deal in and with all kinds of devices and machinery related in any manner whatsoever with the development, mining, improving, handling, drilling, pumping, storing, and refining of oil, its products, or any products of any of said property, also to manufacture, prepare for market, transport, import, export, deal in and with any article or product of any kind or nature whatsoever, hereby intending to acquire by purchase or manufacture or otherwise all supplies and materials necessary or convenient for use in accomplishing the objects herein mentioned:

(f.) To acquire in any other manner which the Company may deem expedient any other lands or premises which the Company may deem proper or necessary to hold for the purpose of carrying on or extending their business:

(g.) To carry on the business of transporting petroleum and other mineral oils, gases, and the products thereof by means of pipe-lines and other means of conveyance and transportation, including ships and other vessels, aircraft, cars, wagons, and other vehicles, and to carry on such business as is, directly or indirectly, incidental to such transportation or which can be advantageously or conveniently carried on by this Company in connection therewith, or which is calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of this Company's assets, property, and rights:

(h.) To carry on the business of oil merchants in all its branches, and to buy and sell oil of every description and every product thereof, and packages and cases for holding the same, and to contract for, distribute, market, and deal in the same in any manner which may be convenient, and to carry on all or any of the business of purchasing, producing, refining, storage, transport, supply, and distribution of every description of petroleum and petroleum products, and also the business of forwarding agents or warehousemen or any other trade or business whatsoever which can be advantageously or conveniently carried on by the Company in connection therewith or with the general business of the Company, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's assets, property, or rights:

(i.) To build, buy, sell, deal in, equip, operate, charter, lease, and own steamships, sailing-ships, boats, aircraft, automobiles, railroad or other cars and vehicles of every kind or description, together with their apparel, tackles, appliances, and fittings, and any other property to be used in the business of trading, commerce, and navigation; to purchase and sell, own and hold, mortgage and lease, and deal in all kinds of wharves, water rights, piers, hangars, airdromes, garages, or other structures, and lands both within and without the Province of British Columbia and the Dominion of Canada and in any and all parts of the world:

(j.) To acquire water and water-power by records of unrecorded water or by the lease or purchase of water records or water privileges:

(k.) To acquire, operate, and carry on the business of a power company, and construct and operate works and supply and utilize water under the "Water Act" or any amendments thereof, or any other Act passed in substitution therefor or as an extension thereof:

(l.) To distribute, sell, supply, or use water-power for mechanical, irrigation, domestic, or any other purposes for which water or other power may be supplied, sold, or used:

(m.) To apply water or water-power for producing any form of power, or for producing and generating electricity for the purpose of light, heat, and power, or any other purpose to which electricity may be applied:

(n.) To render water and water-power available for use, application, and distribution by erecting dams, increasing the head of water in any existing body of water or extending the area thereof, diverting the waters of any stream, pond, or lake into any other channel or channels, laying or erecting any line of flume, pipe, or weir, and constructing any raceway, reservoir, aqueduct, weir, wheel, building, or other erection or work which may be required in connection with the improvements and use of the said water or water-power, or by altering, renewing, extending, improving, repairing, or maintaining any such works or any part thereof:

(o.) To carry on the business of an electric light company in all its branches, and in particular to construct and lay down, establish, fix, and carry out all necessary cables, wires, lines, accumulators, lamps, and works, and to generate, accumulate, distribute, sell, and supply electricity, and to light buildings, streets, docks, and places, both public and private:

(p.) To construct, operate, and maintain electrical works, power-houses, generating plant, and such other appliances and conveniences as are necessary and proper for generating electricity or any other form of developed power, and for transmitting the same to be used by the Company, or other persons or corporations contracting with the Company therefor, as a motive power, or for all or any of the purposes to which electricity or electric power derived from water may be applied, used, or acquired:

(q.) To manufacture, purchase, or otherwise acquire, own, sell, assign, or otherwise transfer and convey, trade, deal in and with goods, wares, merchandise, and property of every class, variety, and description, whether produced by said Company or other companies, corporations, firms, or individuals; to build, repair, maintain, acquire by purchase or otherwise, and operate machines and mechanical contrivances of all kinds and descriptions:

(r.) To acquire by purchase or otherwise the goodwill, trade-marks, trade-names, and all other rights and interests in or pertaining to any business whatever, and to conduct, control, and manage the same, and to assume, entirely or in part, the payment of the debts and liabilities of any person, firm, association, company, or corporation, and to pay for the properties, assets, and rights of any such person, firm, association, company, or corporation in cash, stock of this Company, or with its bonds, or with the stock or bonds of other companies, corporations, persons, firms, or associations, or with other property or otherwise:

(s.) To discover and make inventions and institute and carry through to final decision proceedings for letters patent on inventions of said Company or of others in the Dominion of Canada or any Province thereof and in any and all countries of the world; to apply for, obtain, register, purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire, and hold, own, use, operate, introduce, and sell, assign, or otherwise dispose of, any and all trade-marks, trade-names, licences, and concessions, and all inventions, improvements, and processes used in connection with or secured under letters patent or otherwise of the Dominion of Canada or any Province thereof or of any and all countries of the world; and to use, exercise, develop, grant licences in respect of, or otherwise turn to account any such trade-marks, patents, licences, concessions, processes, and the like, or any such property, rights, and information so acquired; and with a view to the working and developing of the same, to carry on any business, whether mining, manufacturing, or otherwise, which said Company may think calculated, directly or indirectly, to effectuate and accomplish these purposes:

(t.) To hold, acquire, to sell, assign, transfer, mortgage, pledge, or otherwise dispose of shares of the capital stock, bonds, or other evidence of indebtedness created by this Company or any other company or companies, corporation or corporations, and while the holder of such stock to exercise all the rights and privileges of ownership, including the right to vote thereon, to the same extent as a natural person might or could do:

(u.) To purchase, lease, exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire any and all rights, privileges, pursuits, or franchises suitable or convenient for any of the purposes of the business hereinbefore or hereinafter mentioned or specified; to erect or construct, make, improve, or aid or subscribe towards the construction, making, and improvement of mills, factories, storehouses, buildings, houses for employees and others, and works of all kinds and descriptions, and in connection with and in furtherance of the general business objects and purposes of said Company as herein described:

(v.) To borrow and lend money with or without security therefor; to make and issue promissory notes, bonds, debentures, and other evidences of indebtedness; to hypothecate and encumber by mortgage or deed of trust or otherwise all or any of the real or personal property of this Company, wherever situated; to guarantee the payment of the principal or the dividends or interest on any shares, stocks, debentures, or other securities issued by or any other contract or obligation of any company, corporation, firm, or individual whatsoever:

(w.) To make, enter into, and execute contracts of every kind and character, sealed and unsealed, with individuals, firms, associations, companies, and corporations, private, public, and municipal and bodies politic, and with the Government of the Dominion of Canada, or the Province of British Columbia or any other Province thereof, or of any and all countries and States in the world:

To take, make, execute, or enter into any contracts, or to carry on, prosecute, and to defend legal and other proceedings, compromises, arrangements, and schemes, and to do all other acts, matters, and things which shall at any time appear conducive or expedient for the protection of the Company as holders of or interested in any such investments and securities as aforesaid:

(4.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking, lands, property, estate, chattels, and effects of this Company or any part thereof for such consideration as this Company may think fit, either for cash or shares, debentures or securities of any other company operating in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere, and whether or not the objects of such company are altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(5.) To enter into any agreement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(6.) To buy, own, sell, manage, improve, lease, turn to account, dispose of, acquire, and deal in any real or personal property, lands, tenements, hereditaments of all kinds, and in any rights or property which the Company may deem necessary or convenient, and to develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property or rights of the Company:

(7.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(8.) To borrow, raise, or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures charged upon all or any of the Company's property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital, and to purchase, redeem, or pay off any such securities:

(9.) To increase the capital stock of the said Company, and to create and issue any part of the capital as preferred shares, giving the same such preference and priority as respects dividends and other ordinary shares as may be provided in the by-laws of the Company or otherwise determined:

(10.) To procure the Company to be registered or licensed in any Province of the Dominion of Canada or in any other country:

(11.) To distribute any of the property of the said Company in specie among the members:

(12.) The objects set forth in any subclause of this clause shall not, except when the context expressly so requires, be in anywise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other subclause or by the name of the Company. None of such subclauses or the objects therein specified or the powers thereby conferred shall be deemed subsidiary or auxiliary merely to the objects mentioned in the first subclause of this clause, but the Company shall have full power to exercise all or any of the powers conferred by any part of this clause in any part of the world, and notwithstanding that the business, undertaking, property, or acts proposed to be transacted, acquired, dealt with, or performed do not fall within the objects of the first subclause of this clause.
